

Pietro Sarcina
CFO

Pietro brings over 30 years of international business experience with expertise in financial management, strategic planning and business development. He has held C-level roles in various financial, technology and manufacturing industries ranging from start-ups to global companies.

With his business acumen and talent leadership skills, he has worked to direct SurClean's business decisions, helping the company grow and develop into an increasingly internationally viable organization.

Pietro holds a BA in business, and MBA in finance and speaks several languages.